First Eucharist 2009

The Church of Christ the King

FROM YOUR PASTOR

I fully anticipate enjoying the glow of this year's Paschal Triduum for a very long time! What wonderful days they were. God truly blessed us as we once again stepped into the Church's timeless rites and rituals with open hearts and souls. I am so grateful to ALL OF YOU who gathered to celebrate the Triduum.

Many thanks to our maintenance staff and dedicated chief engineer, Jim George. Jim, Sam Dalton, Ron Mercier, and Bill Shy, are always on hand to set up, take down, set up again, and ever ready to handle whatever little or big thing that comes up. And they do it all while smiling. Thank you!

Brad Huard: liturgical factotum, and godsend. Brad oversees so much—the design and creation of the environment, banners and flowers, training our liturgical ministers, serving as Master of Ceremonies at our liturgies, calm, cool, collected. What did we do before Brad???

Thanks to ALL those who offered a hand or two, and their valuable time and generosity in these days: to THE CHOIR who brought their love, their prayer, their hearts and voices, to all our Triduum liturgies, including THREE (a triduum within the Triduum!) Easter Masses; to BELLS' ANGELS: what joy and color you bring to our worship; to all the MUSICIANS and CANTORS: great new sounds from your section this year; to all the eager and energetic parishioners who spent many hours on Holy Saturday preparing the church for Easter; to those who were especially helpful to me included D'Ann Brosnahan, Dave Connor, Michael Lewis, and Jim Walus; and to all our dedicated and conscientious ACOLYTES, LECTORS, EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS, USHERS and GREETERS. Thank you!

(A special shout-out to the "The Three Marys"—Kelly, Ruff, and Zdechlik—who bore the weight of the cross on Good Friday. Among other things, they brought back good memories of a favorite restaurant in L'Aquila, Italy: Le Tre Marie.)

Most sincere appreciation to my staff colleagues: above all, to Moya McGinn Mathews for the beautiful, well-crafted, profound liturgies; to Arlene Pomije (con't on page 3)

PASTORAL OUTREACH

GEMS RUSSIAN ART MUSEUM Tour on Monday, April 27th at 1 pm. After the tour of select favorites and newly revealed works on the main floor and 300 rare postage stamps on the lower level, return to CTK for coffee and treats. Mark your calendars. Cost will be $5.00 for the museum admission. To make a reservation and let us know if you need a ride or can drive, call Mary Ann Schuller at 952-881-4477 or Mary Jane Steinhagen at 612-920-5030 x16

Get Involved! PROJECT HOMELESS CONNECT needs volunteers for its one-day, one-stop shop to deliver services to people who are homeless on Monday, May 11th; 10:30 a.m. until 4pm. People experiencing homelessness come to the Minneapolis Convention Center where they access resources including: housing providers, employment specialists, medical care, dental care, mental health care, benefits specialists, eye care, haircuts, education, veterans' services, youth specific providers, children's services and many more. By donating just one day of your time, you can make a real difference in someone's life. Read more about the program and register to volunteer at: www.homelessconnectminneapolis.org. First time volunteers need to attend a training session, details of which are at the website. CTK has always had volunteers there. Call Mary Jane Steinhagen at 612-920-5030 x16 with your questions.

for the Deviled Eggs, Peanut M&M's, and everything else at our extraordinarily delicious Easter Vigil reception; to Patrice Kaye for the preparation of our worship aids; to Linda Cantu, Becky Farber, Terry Knaffla, Matt Meyers, and Mary Jane Steinhagen for their tireless dedication in all they do. It's so much more than "work" or "a job" for these good people.

Have I overlooked anyone? I hate when that happens. Let me know!

Our Easter feast continues with today's joyful celebration of First Communion. MORE THANKS to our children who today call us to a more conscious union with the dying and rising Lord in the Eucharist; and to their parents, their first teachers in the ways of faith, who so ably prepared the kids these past months.

I so cherish my ministry among you, my dear friends. Thank you for giving me the privilege of being your pastor. May the spirit of these great days inspire and enliven us throughout the fifty glorious days of Easter!
